

August 15 is listed as the first date of employment in order to facilitate the scheduling of certain faculty workshops and discussion sessions. An effort will be made to schedule pertinent topics of common academic or professional interest and will be aimed toward improving the instruction and/or competency of the faculty. The faculty will be required to attend all such workshops unless excused by the Provost & Vice President for Academic Affairs.