<sup>2</sup>Due to Prof. Sennett's BA 417 sections, PH courses offered in EWC will need to be overload or adjunct-taught courses.

<sup>3</sup>PH 300 and PH 304 are offered every four years. PH 304 will be offered in Spring 2012 and 2016; PH 300, in Spring 2014 and 2018.

NOTES

<sup>1</sup>This rotation allows the teaching of seven of the catalog PH courses for which Dr. Sennett is responsible once in the WC during the four semesters. Two other classes (300, 304) will be taught once every four years.

<sup>2</sup>For the time being, Prof. Sennett can only offer summer classes online, since he lives 90 miles from the Gainesville campus. He would, if needed, be available for summer classes on the Fairburn campus.

<sup>3</sup>If desired or required, an overload PH course can be offered in EWC.

<sup>4</sup>PH 304 will be offered in 2012 and 2016; PH 300, in 2014 and 2018.
